

Hans Christian

Hans-Georg Christian Reumschuessel (born May 20th, 1960 in Hannover, Germany) is a composer, music producer, recording artist, and sound engineer. He is also co-founder of the music group RASA.

Bio

Born to a Lutheran minister and a social worker, Hans' earliest exposure to music came through church events. He started formal cello studies in 1970 for a period of 10 years. In 1974 he took an interest in the bass guitar and started to play in local rock bands, in addition to his classical music activities.

In 1979 Hans graduated from Lutherschule Hannover (a gymnasium), became a conscientious objector, and enrolled at the University Koeln for musicology, philosophy, and German literature. In 1980 he transferred to the University Hamburg for the same subject matters. He first visited the USA in 1981 (New York City) and enrolled at the Musicians Institute in Hollywood in March 1982 as a bass player. He graduated with a professional degree from MI in 1983 and lived in Los Angeles until 1988, at which point he moved to San Francisco. In 1989 he started Allemande Music, a recording studio and production company. In 1998 he opened a recording studio under the same name in Fairfax, CA. In 2002 he moved to Sister Bay, Wisconsin.

Early recordings

His first recordings commenced 1976-1978 at a local recording studio in Hannover with the bands Duo Flamenco and Murphy, and with Sunset at the Deutsche Grammophon Studios in Hamburg. After moving to Hamburg in 1980 he participated in recordings at Tonstudio Hafenklang. His interest in all aspects of the recording process was ignited during these sessions.
